Ritual Art and Celebration for the 1st Day of the Year 2002

Say, write, do, be, make, sing, rant, think or rave-on about Something that is symbolic of how you feel about self, life, your place on the planet.

Silence or focused non-participation is of course an option and is meaningful.

1. Take some time to plan.
2. We will all pick the space.
3. There is a designated beginning but YOU determine the timing for your ritual.
4. You may inter-face or overlap with another's words, movements, space.....whatever happens is O.K.

The structure is spontaneous and as such will help create itself.
